Dear John:

Enclosed are the original and one copy of the 2020 Foreign Organization return, as follows...

2020 Form 990-BE

Each original should be dated, signed and filed in accordance with the filing instructions. The copy should be retained for your files.

The enclosed return(s) were prepared from your books and records without audit. You should review the return(s) to ensure there are no omissions or misstatements.

Any act of self-dealing, the making or retaining of excess business holdings, or jeopardizing investments, and the making of taxable expenditures may subject the foundation to penalty taxes of from 5% to 20% of the amount of prohibited transactions. Please contact us for further information if you have questions concerning any of these prohibited transactions.

The Internal Revenue Service may impose substantial penalties if certain foreign bank accounts or assets are not reported.
Please inform us and do not file this return if you have signature authority or a financial interest in any foreign bank accounts or assets.

We sincerely appreciate the opportunity to serve you. Please contact us if you have any questions or if we may be of further assistance.

Very truly yours,

MELTON & MELTON L.L.P.
